About the Pageant

Purpose

The purpose of the Miss RangerFest Pageant is to offer contestants a chance to showcase their personality, confidence, speaking abilities, and accomplishments both in and out of school. This pageant also serves as an opportunity for Southern Prep to introduce our school and campus to those who wish to participate or attend. Southern Prep is excited to kick off the upcoming RangerFest on March 22, 2025, with the Miss RangerFest Pageant, highlighting our vibrant community and spirit.

Pageant Rules:

1. Each contestant must meet the eligibility requirements.
2. If a contestant is unable to fulfill Miss RangerFest obligations, the title will be awarded to the first runner-up.
3. All photos taken during the pageant and RangerFest activities may be used by Southern Prep for publicity purposes.
4. Each contestant is allowed one person to assist them in the dressing area.
5. Contestants must arrive on time for their pre-pageant interview.
6. Contestants are expected to conduct themselves with sportsmanship before and during the pageant, as well as at all RangerFest events.
7. Contestants must adhere to the dress code.

Eligibility Requirements:

1. Candidates must be in grades 9-12 and have a parent/guardian's permission to compete.
2. Candidates must agree to attend all events required by Southern Prep in relation to RangerFest if crowned Miss RangerFest.

Interview Attire:

- Outfit of choice, with no plunging necklines.
- Dresses must not be above the knee.
